Updated: September 25, 2018

NINJA Platform

This Privacy Policy explains how NINJA Platform (“NP” or “we”) uses personal and other types of information we collect from you when you visit us at ninjaplatform.com (the “Site”). A user (User) is every person, who uses NP services. This Privacy Policy will give the User an overview of the personal data we collect from Users of our website, our online services, recipients of our emails, or when you otherwise interact with us. It describes the data that we collect about you, and how we use, share and protect this data. This policy does not apply to the practices of companies not owned or controlled by NINJA Platform or to people whom NINJA Platform does not employ or manage. If you do not agree with our practices, please do not use our Site and the Services.

Data we collect

We do not collect users personal information. NP always keeps access logs to our servers, which contain IP address, time, access details.

It is crucial to note that private keys are never transmitted to our servers, so it is not possible for us to access a user’s wallet in any case.

Information we collect automatically while using our online services

In addition to the personal information described above, we may collect certain information about your use of our online services. We may collect information about your use of the online services, including the type of browser you use, access times, pages viewed, your IP address and the page you visited before navigating to our online services with analytics tools.

Use of information

The personal information the User has given NP will be used for the purposes of delivering NP services, including for fraud prevention purposes, to monitor for possible breach of your NP, and to identify any malicious software or other activity that may harm NP services or its users.

NP will keep all information given by or about the User, which is not considered public information, including but not limited to information provided during the registration process and e-mail communications through any medium, confidential.

NP will not disclose personal information to any third parties without User’s consent, except if the User agrees NP may do so, if it is required to be disclosed by law, by a governmental agency or to protect the interests of NP.

Other purposes the information may be used:

- For better performance of NP services;
- To administer, evaluate and improve NP’s business (including developing new products and services, improving existing products and services, performing data analytics, monitoring and analysing trends, and performing accounting, auditing and other internal functions);
- To manage risks;
- To market NP’s services;
- To comply with and enforce applicable laws and regulations, relevant industry standards, contractual obligations and our policies;
- To carry out any other purpose for which the information was collected.

Changes to NP Privacy Policy

NP may change this Privacy Policy from time to time. All changes will be posted on NP website (www.NinjaPlatform.com) and will become effective after publishing unless stated otherwise.
